

Peregrine in Rome

Directed by: Emanuele Coppola
Produced by: Panda Film
Duration: 30'
Versions:
Format: SD

The presence of the peregrine falcon in the ancient center of Rome is a novelty of the recent years and it indicates a general improvement of the life conditions of a species that only a few decades ago was seriously threatened. Just few kilometers south of Rome, in the Roman Castels Regional park, a couple of peregrine falcons has been constantly kept under surveillance for several yers thanks to a special system of video monitoring.
